CONNECT the DOTS

In Exodus 20, Moses receives the Ten Commandments. These were to help God's people learn to live together in a just and loving way after being freed from slavery. Connect the dots to form the tablets. Inside, draw a picture of what a just and fair world looks like to you.

CHILDREN'S WORSHIP • BULLETIN

Activities based on Exodus 20: 1-4; 7-9; 12-20, Psalm 19, Philippians 3:4b- 14.

DRAW IT

In Philippians 3, Paul compares following Jesus to running a race. It requires a lot of focus and perseverance! You have to keep your eyes on what is ahead of you. Draw a picture of you running, with Jesus running next to you. How do you feel knowing Jesus will give you all you need to live and run well?
