Grasping at Hope

So Easter finally arrives, the flowers begin to pop up in our yards. The grass begins to grow and we start looking for the gas for the mower. The temperature gradually creeps up to the 70s. We break out a short sleeve shirt and smile as we put it on. Then we wake up one morning and the temperature has dropped into the 40s and the wind makes us pull on a jacket. It is as though spring is trying to be born into the world and the cold wind is trying to scare it away. We get a bit depressed and feel cheated.

God has raised Jesus from the dead. Easter light begins to dispel winters darkness. We are promised that God in Christ is scampering across our world scattering hope like Easter eggs—a healing here, a hopeful possibility there. We are trying to grasp the hope like a runner grasps the baton in a relay race. And then it happens—another shooting, another friend with cancer, another story of corruption. We hear the baton drop. We assume the race is lost.

the LORD delights in those who fear him, who put their hope in his unfailing love.

Psalm 147:11

But God is not a God of instant answers, nor is God one to give up. The world will not be instantly changed from despair to hope, but it will come. It will come even if it is only one step at a time. It will come when you do something loving, like sharing with a person in need or helping out at St. MAM, Cabbage Patch or Habitat. It will come because the stone has been rolled away and God is on the loose in the world. HBPres has been at this thing called ministry for almost 100 years. For 100 years we have been introducing the world to God's hope.

The sound you hear is not the baton dropping. The sound you hear is Christ picking it up and putting it back into our hands and asking, "Are you running with me?"

Caring for our Church Family

I would like to thank the congregation for all their prayers. I felt surrounded by your concern and care. Many thanks as well for all the cards, notes and visits. They shortened the days and I really appreciated each one.

Sincerely,
Louise Pumpelly

The family of Ed Hilbert extends appreciation and gratitude to the HBPres staff, hospital visitation ministry, Deacons and others for the daily visits to the hospital and the prayers and support given to us as we were going through these trying times.

We would also like to acknowledge the cards, notes and phone calls from our church family and friends.

Many thanks to PW Circle A at HBPres and the Second Presbyterian Church Weekday School for providing the food served at the reception. It was certainly a job well done.

Meet Our Mission Workers – Dustin and Sherry Ellington

Fourth in a series

HBPres helps support several Presbyterian Church (USA) mission workers. One such couple is the Rev. Dr. Dustin and Sherry Ellington, mission co-workers in Zambia. A growing need for well-trained pastors who can faithfully proclaim the Scriptures is what drew the Ellingtons to the Justo Mwale Theological University College in Lusaka. Their current assignment comes after serving for five years in theological education in Egypt.

Zambia has a population of 12.9 million people, which includes some 70 ethnic groups. An estimated 50 to 75 percent of the population identify themselves as Christian. Presbyterianism was introduced into Zambia by Scottish missionaries in the 1860s. The churches in Zambia, like those in other parts of Africa, struggle with leadership needs because of fast growth. Zambia has a per capita gross domestic product of $1,500, which ranks it 200th among 227 countries of the world. In addition to poverty, Zambia struggles with the burdens created by the rapid spread of infectious diseases, including HIV/AIDS.

“Learning to live cross-culturally as a family—the Ellingtons have two sons, Clayton and Christopher—is a challenge that demands patience, energy and imagination,” Dustin says. “It also brings many of the deepest joys of cross-cultural ministry as we learn together and take on countless adventures.”

Dustin holds a Ph.D. in New Testament from Duke University and an M.Div. from Princeton Theological Seminary. He was ordained to the ministry of Word and Sacrament in March 1995 by the Presbytery of San Joaquin. Sherri, a former elementary school teacher, is a member of Triangle Presbyterian Church in Durham, North Carolina.

You can learn more about the Ellingtons at <http://www.presbyterianmission.org/ministries/missionconnections/ellington-dustin-and-sherri/>.

We've Gone Green

The Hunger and Justice Committee at HBPres is now the Hunger, Justice and Environment Committee. Because hunger and justice issues are linked in many ways to issues affecting the environment, it seemed appropriate to group them all together.

The Jumble Sale and Hunger Dinner in February netted a total of $596.00. This includes an item sold at Charlotte's Web, where we take some of the nicer items that we do not sell at the Jumble Sale or Yard Sale. They have helped us sell several items over the past two years. Proceeds will go to two Presbyterian Hunger Program projects, one in the Chaco Region of South America and the other in South Sudan.

Thank you for your support!

Spring Clothing Drive

It's spring, which means it's time to bring your gently used clothing and shoes for men, women and children to church during the month of May. Place your items on the coat racks across from the drop closet or in the clothing bin. Items will be delivered to the Salvation Army.

If you have any questions, contact Mary Reid at 425-3936.

Welcome, New Member

Please welcome Dudley Kent Haines, who was received as a new member in March. Dudley is a manager at Big Springs Country Club who enjoys his work and cooking. Having been raised in a Presbyterian Church in Alabama, he feels right at home with our friendly congregation. The muffins on his doorstep didn't hurt either, he says.

Bookanalia

Will meet Wednesday, May 15 at 6:30 p.m. to discuss Mud Creek Medicine: The Life of Eula Hall and the Fight for Appalachia by Kiran Bhattraju, presented by Vicki Poole Adams and David Adams.

Vicki and David are excited about sharing this story about their friend Eula Hall written by the son of a physician who worked in Mud Creek Clinic for two decades. Armed with an eighth grade education and a heart full of concern, care and compassion, a vision, and a fighting spirit that would not take no for an answer or settle for something that was designed for the politicians or for businesses, rather than to address the needs of her neighbors, Eula has spearheaded what is now a comprehensive community primary health care center for her neighbors on Mud Creek in Eastern Kentucky. As you read this page turner of a book and hear her story you will realize that she is truly a force to be reckoned with.

If you purchase the book at Carmichael's, mention Bookanalia at HBPres and receive a 20% discount.

What's Going On...

Presbyterian Women's Spring Birthday Luncheon and Evening Program

All Presbyterian women and friends are invited to attend the Spring Birthday Luncheon, Tuesday, May 12 in Eline Hall at 10:30 a.m. The ninth Bible lesson on Reconciling Paul will be taught by Kimberly Cabrera. At 11:00 a.m. our guest speaker, Shannon Beck from Presbyterian World Mission, will give the keynote address, which follows this year's theme, "Comfort, O Comfort My People."

The Birthday Offering this year will help support The Bethesda Christian Community in Barranquilla, Columbia, which serves women and children who have been abused. The other recipient of this year's offering is The Community of St Therese of Lisieux, located in Memphis, Tennessee. This safe residential community addresses the needs of young women seeking to learn a new way of life after prostitution and addiction.

A delicious lunch prepared by Kathy Darby will be available for $9.00 per person. The meal will be followed by the presentation of Honorary Life Memberships and the introduction of this year's leaders of our organization.

The evening PW circles will enjoy a pot luck dinner beginning at 6:00 p.m. followed by Bible study and the presentation by Shannon Beck.

You do not have to be a circle member to attend either session. Join us for food, fellowship and support of women throughout the world.

For further information or to sign up for the luncheon, please call Portia Brittan at 593-7159 or Marybelle Duff at 632-2450.

Looking for Stories Worth Sharing

The committee planning our church’s 100th anniversary celebration in 2016 is looking for stories from both long-time and more recent members describing what HBPres has meant to them. How this church has made a difference in your life or the life of someone you know?

If you have a suggestion of someone we might interview or, better yet, if you’d be willing to share your story, please contact Marianne at 894-0332 or mgchteach@att.net.

And be watching next month for a special centennial announcement you’ll want to be part of.

In The News...

Easter Breads

Once again, Easter breads were a glorious way to celebrate Jesus' resurrection with our church family and friends.

Thank you this year to the PW day circles, who were in charge of planning Easter breads aided by India Hoddy's organizational skills. Scott Blake and Mary Reid's flower arranging, along with the decorating group, once again transformed our gym into a delightful venue. Thanks to those who donated flowers from their yards to use in the arrangements. Thanks to Judy Laning for taking care of the children's table. Breads were received, cut, and plated by our Saturday PW crew and ready for our Sunday PW crew to present, replenish and clean-up afterwards.

Thank you to the 52 church members who provided breads and goodies to share; to our custodial staff, who work hard to help prepare for all of our events, and to everyone who attended the feast and enjoyed the conversations and celebration.

We are already thinking about Easter Breads 2016, which will be March 27. Begin thinking now about a bread you'd like to share.

Understanding your Blood

The following is intended to build on a theme started in the Wellness display case in the hall just before you come to the gym.

Why does your physician test your blood? Your body may not be making the right amount of blood cells, or the cells it makes may not work properly. For this reason your doctor will check your blood regularly with a test called a CBC (complete blood count). The results of blood tests combined with other tests help determine when treatment is needed, what treatment is best for you, and how well your treatment is working.

There are 3 main types of blood cells:

RBCs give blood its red color and are filled with hemoglobin, a protein in the blood that carries oxygen. Hematocrit is the percent of your total blood volume that is made up of RBCs. Reticulocytes are young immature RBCs that eventually become RBCs. Your doctor will order blood tests that monitor all of these.

WBCs are part of your body's defense system, they help prevent and fight infection. There are different kinds of WBCs with Neutrophils being the most common and most critical to fighting infection & disease.

Platelets help stop or prevent bleeding by forming blood clots.

Please check out the display in the Wellness case for a better understanding.

P.S. – Save your blood for the next drive May 6, from 3:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in Eline Hall.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Vacation Bible School is a local ministry of our church. The children who attend are not only children in our church but children in our community, and it is an opportunity for them to learn about God's love as we welcome them to our church. In order to make this mission possible, it requires many volunteers from our church community who are willing to share God's love with them for these mornings. We need the following help:

- Adult science leaders and youth science helpers
- Bible story tellers (youth or adults)
- Snack helpers (youth or adults)
- Adult or youth leaders to take children to different rotations
- Craft helpers (youth or adults)
- A leader for a youth class
- A leader for an adult class

If you can help us with this wonderful ministry to children, please contact Beth Kolodey (cell 836-5442 or beth.kolodey@gmail.com) or call the church office (896-1791) and volunteer to be part of this fulfilling mission for our community.
