Being right or in the right relationship

After years of being barred from our bed by me, Teddy, our miniature Dachshund, now is allowed to sleep with Janie and me. He and my wife bonded recently while visiting the grandchildren in Arkansas. One night recently he was pressing his little, very hot back against mine and it awakened me. I moved him toward Janie and went back to sleep. About thirty minutes later he was once again pressing against my back. I moved closer to the edge of the bed and he simply slid closer to me. Suddenly I realized I was about to fall out of bed. I am now convinced he wants Janie all to himself. He is not the only one, our grandchildren feel the same way.

“And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds,”

Hebrews 10:24

Dogs are incredibly loyal to the people they love. I can buy his love briefly by feeding him a carrot or a peanut, two of his favorite treats. But purchased love isn't love at all. Real relationships are built on much more than that. I appreciate all the wonderful things my wife does for me but I fell in love with her before most of those things were even visible in our relationship. (OK, there was that one tuna fish sandwich she made for me, but other than that I was in this deal for better or for worse.)

I feel pretty much the same way about the church. For my whole life I have watched God work through Presbyterians. My grandparents were Presbyterian, my grandmother played the organ in Center Presbyterian Church, my Uncle Smiley cooked the BBQ for the ingathering each year. My great-grandfather, the Rev. Hector McNeil, started six Presbyterian churches.

The PC(USA) has a democratic representational system of government, much like our own country. We vote, we disagree, we accomplish things, we make mistakes. Sometimes we go back and fix things we messed up. Where I grew up, many of the Presbyterian churches around us in North Carolina had slave balconies because, at that time, we did not believe blacks and whites should worship together. We fixed that. Women were not allowed to be officers or pastors and we fixed that. I am glad I am in a church where I am not told what to do by a Pope or a Bishop. This, of course, is not to say that I am not fine with folks who like that system. I applaud all Christians everywhere.

The Presbyterian Church was not perfect when I was born into it and then joined it over 50 years ago and it will not be perfect when I move on to that which is perfect, that place prepared for all of us in heaven. But when I joined the church I accepted the relationship “for better and for worse.” I joined it not because it was right and the other churches were wrong. I joined it and stay in it because of the deep and abiding relationships that have developed over my life by being a part of this group we call Presbyterians. I joined it because it is among these people that I have found not right but relationship—relationship with that one who has loved me for better and for worse my whole life, the one who is my Lord and Savior.

Notes from Session

Deacons' Corner

The Session of HBPres met on July 29, 2014 for a stated meeting. Following the devotion given by Sara Sutphin, the following business was handled:

- Missy Turner gave a report on the work of the Spiritual Formation Committee. This report is in the August newsletter. There is a need for volunteers for Sunday School.
- A motion passed to place the Ellie Kinloch bequest of $25,000.00 towards the 2014 general budget. This decision was made due to a shortfall with the budget.
- Session was presented with a revised Child Protection Policy. Following discussion, it was decided two amendments should be made to the policy to define "Adult Leader" and to have the policy apply to one-on-one music lessons/tutoring. Session approved the revised policy. Final approval of the policy will come at the September stated meeting. Programs/events will be run under the revised policy until the final policy is approved.
- John Roper led a conversation on two major actions taken by the PC(USA) General Assembly. Information will be sent to the congregation by email. Small group discussions will be available Wednesday nights when the program year begins.
- Session approved three worship services for the upcoming program year: traditional worship at 8:30 and 11:00 and contemporary at 10:00.

The next stated meeting will be September 2, 2014.

Are you at the top of your game? Are you prepared? We want you to be the best Deacon you can be. Make plans now to attend the Fall Deacons Retreat on Saturday, September 13 from 10:00 - 11:30 a.m. in Eline Hall. If you need childcare please contact Julie Rousseau (896-1791). If you plan to attend the retreat contact Lynn Cole (491-5337 or lpadrian@gmail.com) by Wednesday September 10.

Welcome Our New Members!

Janet and Dale Redford come to us from Iroquois Presbyterian Church. As young retirees they are busy helping with their grandson, Graham, their daughter Leslie's son. They also have another daughter, Alison. The Redfords enjoy reading, traveling, spending time with family and following U of L sports. They like the friendliness of HBPres, the strong worship service, the music, and the sermons.

Jeff, Rachelle, Jakob and Lukas Felty have lived in Louisville for over 25 years. Jeff is the Senior Director of Compliance at ResCare, Inc. and Rachelle is a clinical social worker at Norton Healthcare. They have two sons, Jakob, a senior at Manual High school, and Lukas, a freshman at Christian Academy of Louisville. Lukas is looking forward to spending time with the HBPres youth program. Jeff and Rachelle enjoy reading, watching movies, travelling, and spending time with family, especially participating in the boys' schools activities and sports. They have felt very welcomed at HBPres and say it has become a "new home" for the whole family.

Caring for our Neighbors

Touched Twice Health Clinic

For the fourth year, our neighbor church, St. Matthews Methodist, will be hosting this one day ministry. Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 25 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Many volunteers are needed for this project, which provides free medical service to underprivileged individuals along with meeting other physical and spiritual needs. Some of the services offered are: medical exams, cancer screenings, hearing tests, massages, haircuts, family photos, a hot meal, clothing closet and food pantry.

Each year, thirty-four HBPres members have volunteered in several different areas, especially as “advocates” who accompany each family unit through the services requested. The number of adults and children attending this clinic increases each year, so the need for volunteers increases. All ages can help and there are “sitting down” jobs.

You may not be able to help on October 25 but everyone can participate during the month of October by bringing needed items to the HBPres Grocery Cart (non-perishable food and hygiene items) for the clinic's food pantry and Clothing Drive (fall/winter adult & children clothing) for the clinic's clothing closet.

Sign-ups will begin Sunday, September 28 before and after the 11:00 service. If you have questions or wish to volunteer, please contact Mary Alice Grover at 454-4317 or mrygrover@aol.com.

Thanks

On behalf of the Survivors of Torture Recovery Center I would like to express my sincerest thanks to all the folks at HBPres who donated art supplies as well as children's books and toys to the STRC. Your generosity overwhelms us.

Jim Guinn, STRC Project Manager

Grocery Cart

The items collected in the Grocery Cart for the month of September will be donated to Uspiritus' Bellewood Independent Living Division. This division supports young adults (age 18 to 21) as they age out of foster care and transition to their own apartment and either further their education or get a job.

Items “most needed” are:

Toilet Paper & Paper Towels
Laundry & Dishwashing Soaps
Household Cleaning Supplies
Deodorant & Bath Soap
Canned Fruits, Veggies, Soups
Mac & Cheese
Pasta & Sauce

As always, other items will be accepted. For questions/concerns, contact Wilma Bennett (459-7705).

Help the HBPres Youth

Starting in September, you will no longer have to load money onto Kroger gift cards to earn money to support our HBPres Youth program, you can do so by using your Kroger Plus card. Check out the flyer on the Welcome Center for instructions on how to sign-up. The Youth will tell you more about how this program helps fund mission trips, retreats and more during our Moment for Ministry on Sunday, September 14.

If you have any questions about this new program or need help, contact Portia Brittain at 593-7159

(Another program under the PW umbrella)

Date	Book	Author	Presenter	Notes
Sept. 17, 2014	The Cornbread Mafia: A Homegrown Syndicate's Code of Silence and the Biggest Marijuana Bust in American History	James Higdon	Ginny Copenhefer	The people of Lebanon, Kentucky and the surrounding area are a close-knit community. They can be very competitive. They are also energetic, innovative, industrious, dedicated to a quality product, and always loyal to each other. The only problem is that their products are often illegal.
	Followed at 7:30 by a celebration of 30 years of Bookanalia
Oct. 15, 2014	The Invention of Wings	Sue Monk Kidd	Judy Laning	This historical novel is about slave owner, Sarah Grimke and her sister Angelina who in the 1830's were speaking out for liberty and equality for women and African-American slaves. Their pamphlet inspired Harriett Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin .
Nov. 19, 2014	Aunt Jane of Kentucky	Eliza Calvert Hall	Marybelle Duff	Sit and rock beside Aunt Jane Parish in 1907 as she cooks or quilts and tells tales about her small Presbyterian Church in Goshen, Kentucky, where the men think they are in control of things.

Bookanalia Bash

We're having a party to celebrate 30 years of Bookanalia, Wednesday, September 17 at 7:30 p.m. in Eline Hall. You are invited if you have ever been on a selection committee to select books, presented a book, attended a Bookanalia, read a book selected for Bookanalia, thought about reading one of the books or attending Bookanalia, are curious about Bookanalia, or would just like to have some of the six delicious cakes we are having to celebrate. I think that includes just about everybody.

Before the party at 6:30 p.m., Ginny Copenhefer (the brain behind Bookanalia) will discuss a Louisville favorite, The Cornbread Mafia: A Homegrown Syndicate's Code of Silence and the Biggest Marijuana Bust in American History, written by a hometown journalist, James Higdon. Those guys really knew how to provide for a party, but their stuff was mostly illegal. If you buy your book at Carmichael's Bookstore, mention Bookanalia at HBPres and receive a 20% discount. Please come help us celebrate!

Rep. John Yarmuth has said that Hall's “story reminds us that the human spirit is as strong as the mountains.” Through this spirit and her life, she has established a health clinic in her Eastern Kentucky community and continues working there to ensure that it survives.

It is Almost Time for Wednesday Night Meals & Ministry!

Our Kick-Off starts with a Chinese dinner at 5:30 p.m. on Wednesday, September 3rd

With the meticulous planning of our now “part-time” chef, Kathy Darby, there is no doubt that our Kitchen Ministry will continue to thrive.

Perhaps you wish to start a group or do an activity. Feel free to email or call Kim Cabrera (896-1791x109 or kcabrera@bellsouth.net) and she will contact you to see what sort of support you need and how we can give you a jump-start.

Each week, our meal time will conclude with a short devotion and then we will jump right into our congregational clean-up. If you would like to lead some of our weekly devotions, you are welcome to do so. Again, let Kim know and she will contact you.

Here is our schedule on September 3rd

- 5:30 - dinner (This week only: 1st-5th grade children & youth will not be dismissed at 6:00)
- 6:05 - announcements/devotion

We are in the process of implementing a new Child Protection Policy which requires the efforts of all adults, especially parents and those who volunteer with our children & youth. Please Note: We encourage ALL adults to attend this meeting even if you do not have children or youth in Wednesday Night Ministry.

Come join us as we discuss these two issues following Wednesday supper on September 10 in Eline Hall (same sex marriage, led by Bill Williamson); and September 17 in the Session room (Israel/Palestine divestment, led by Adam Fischer)

Please note: John’s Bible Study will begin on September 24th in Room 206.

HBPres UNIVERSITY FALL 2014
SUNDAY MORNING ADULT STUDY OPPORTUNITES

September 7th-November 23rd

Session Room: Tim Cargal & Ben Blake will lead The Holy Lands: Then and Now. This study will look at the geography of what is now Israel, the West Bank, and Jordan, and how the land plays into both the stories in scripture and today's headlines. The Issues Class will join Tim & Ben's course this term.

Barrett Room: Bill Williamson will lead A Royal Waste of Time: A Study of Worship. Some might say that worship is a "waste of time" because it doesn't accomplish anything--not improving my health, not enhancing my standing with God, not increasing the number of church members. It is for one purpose only: the glorifying of God. We'll talk about worship, and also plan a worship service for October 12.

Room C26: Mariners Class will work through the 6 week video series Making Sense of the Bible: Rediscovering the Power of Scripture Today by Adam Hamilton.

*Please Note: The classes above begin at 9:45 a.m. Coffee is available in the Chapel Hallway and Eline Hall after the early service. Breakfast is served at 9:30 a.m. in Eline Hall.

Program Year Classes (Sept through May)

These classes have a different schedule.

Breakfast: 9:30 in Eline Hall

Class: 10:00

Room 117: Beth Kolodey will lead: Together With Jesus: A Time for Parents/ Grandparents AND their infants-3 year olds to learn the faith together.
*Please Note: A parent need not accompany their 2 or 3 year old if they plan to attend another class.

Room 216: Kim Cabrera will lead: Fast Faith. For 35-50(ish) adults who have jam-packed schedules and would like a very laid-back Sunday school atmosphere. This will be both a social and educational time where we may do a book study, a Bible study, dig into a controversial topic or enjoy good conversation if attendance is low. For couples, singles, parents and non-parents.

What's Going On...

Ladies Book Talk

Ladies Book Talk will meet on Tuesday, September 30 at 11:30 a.m. at the Bistro at the Olmsted. We will discuss The Language of Flowers by Vanessa Diffenbaugh. If you have any questions, please contact Mary Faltin at 326-5069.

Yoga with Betsy

Come join us and connect your mind, body, and spirit! Not only does yoga work and stretch the muscles, increasing strength, flexibility, and range of motion, but we also practice tuning into the present moment, focusing on the breath, and letting go of stress while we honor the body...wherever we might be on our own personal journeys.

We will resume our Sunday evening practice beginning September 7. Yoga will be on Sunday evenings from 5:00-6:00 p.m. in the Session Room. The cost is $5 for HBPres members and $10 for non-members.

Beginning in October, there will also be yoga on the first and third Wednesdays of the month during our Wednesday night programs (from 6:30-7:15ish in the Session Room). There is no cost for the Wednesday night practice. I do have a few extra mats, but bringing your own would be helpful. Please feel free to call or email Betsy Barrick with any questions.

Namaste!

Men's Book Forum

The HBPres Men's Book Forum will meet Monday, September 22 at Noon at Buca di Beppo restaurant. We will be reviewing Tuxedo Park by Jennet Conant, recommended by Adrian Cole. For questions contact Gary Faltin, 326-5069.

Tables of Eight

A big thanks to Skip Light for all his efforts with the "Tables of Eight" hospitality program. Skip was responsible for bringing this idea to HBPres, marketing the program, and matching up members. This fun activity has enabled many members over the years to meet other members outside of church and get better acquainted.

My name is Joni Burke and I will be assuming the role of overseeing this program starting in the fall. We are anxious to get some of our newer members involved as well as bring back some of our original "Tables of Eight" members. I have had a chance to talk to some of you about what you like and ideas for growing this fun activity. Look for a flier in your church bulletin and sign up to participate.

We will be trying a new approach this fall. Some people have not been able to commit to meet four gatherings. Some people would like to participate but are unable to host. We hope the new format will enable a greater number of members to participate and meet other church members.

I am looking for 10 volunteers to host a small group in their homes Sunday, October 19. Please call me at 893-7931 or email me at jonikburke@gmail.com if you would like to help out. In the meantime, put Sunday, October 19 on your calendar. That will be the kick-off event for the fall.

If you have questions or suggestions, please contact me.

Joni Burke

Yard Sale

The Hunger and Justice Committee will hold a yard sale at HBPres Saturday, September 20 from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Please begin to look around for those items for which you would like to find a "new home."

Items may be brought to the church beginning September 6 and left at the back of Room 209. We ask that no clothing be donated unless it is new. Proceeds from the yard sale will be evenly divided between the Presbyterian Hunger Program's West African Initiative and to help the indigenous people of the Chaco region of South America.

For more information on these projects, see Page 7 of the March 2014 newsletter, which can be found on our HBPres.net website under Online Resources> Newsletters. Please contact Emily Brown, 896-2081, if you have any questions.

Eagle Scout, You Soar!

Congratulations to Joseph Fierle, who successfully completed his Board of Review for Eagle Scout last month. Joseph is the 158th Eagle from Troop 315.

Joseph completed his Eagle Service Project at Dreams with Wings by renovating their basement meeting area with new paint and additional art equipment.

Communion Prep Group Formed

A new small group is forming to prepare for communion services through teamwork. Teams will focus on preparation, clean-up, or buying supplies. Teams will rotate throughout the year. The goal is to have one person be responsible for a communion Sunday three or four times per year.

This is a great way to get to know others in the church. Please come to a meeting September 4 at 7:00 p.m. for more information. Even if you have never prepared communion before, your enthusiasm is all that's required.

If you are interested, contact Sara Sutphin, 493-0412 or s.sutphin@me.com

Ladies Lunch Bunch

Ladies Lunch Bunch begins on Friday, September 5. Every 1st and 3rd Friday, come to Nancy's Bagel Grounds on Frankfort Ave. at 11:30 a.m. for lunch and conversation. No RSVP is necessary. Contact Kim Cabrera at kcabrera@bellsouth.net or 896-1791x109 for more information.

Presbyterian Men

The Presbyterian Men's Group will resume meeting Saturday, September 20, at 9:00 a.m. in Room 206. One of the long-term ministries of HBPres, it has provided fellowship, food, and thoughtful programs through the years. Bill Williamson will be leading the Bible study. Group members share in bringing pastries for breakfast. The group always welcomes newcomers. Contact Bill Williamson, 896-1791 ext.112, with questions.

Thanks

Thank you HBPres. Through your generosity we have been able to support The Cabbage Patch’s back to school programming. Over 120 children, youth, and college scholars were assisted with their school needs through our donation of 196 packets of loose leaf paper, 1400 pencils, 290 pens, 200 spiral notebooks, 350 folders, 141 composition books, 13 backpacks and 60 scissors. As these scholars enter a new school year, the generosity of HBPres members will allow them to embrace their dreams and passions as they work toward a brighter future.

Being “Regular” at HBPres

by Rev. Kim Cabrera, Associate Pastor

Happy September! I think that September is the busiest time of the year at HBPres; busier than Christmas and Easter. You see, as one of the program staff, I am the liaison to many, many ministries here at this church. And September means that things go back to normal for me and you, right? WRONG! Nothing in the 2014-1015 program year is normal or usual or typical or regular or exactly the same as last year. Read on to see where I serve you...

The Spiritual Enrichment Committee encompasses Presbyterian Women and really all adult ministry (other than mission) including Wednesday Night Dinners and Adult Sunday School. Please see the SEC article in this edition of our newsletter. There is also an article about our new Wednesday Night plans. Hint, hint: Big changes are in store for us this year. HBPres University is going into its 2nd year and although some of our class names remain the same, there is nothing “regular” about what we will offer. Each year we offer a variety of courses and/or sessions which focus on four main areas: Engaging the Scripture, Living the Faith, Presbyterian Viewpoint and Other Offerings (i.e. history, spirituality, parenting, faith formation as well as a combination of all of these in one class!).

The Support Ministry Committee strengthens and supports all of the Harvey Browne ministries. This Committee includes church finances and stewardship, maintenance and upkeep and beautification of our building and grounds, Parents’ Day Out, finances, stewardship, technology, ecological stewardship and disaster preparedness. I am sure all of you have noticed our pretty, newly finished parking lot and Session Room.

Deacons and Stephen Ministers: The seven-member Board of Deacons is heading into its 2nd year. We accomplished a lot including streamlining the way we keep our records and flock lists and the way we keep the congregation informed of pastoral joys and concerns. We said good-bye to Miriam Elliot as one of our long-time Stephen Leaders and hello to Doug Earley, who was trained and certified as our new Stephen Leader in Texas this Summer. Doug and Scott Blake will make wonderful leadership partners and they already have some wonderful new plans for Stephen Ministry.

Special Events and Marketing Teams: Bruce Lindsey has taken the reigns from Kelly Burke on our Special Events Team. Bruce is looking forward to getting new folks involved and excited to be a part of his planning team. Doug Mann is the new chairman of our Marketing Team. I feel that the congregation has joyfully embraced our nickname, HBPres, and I am proud that I was able to serve on the team who created this very cool and catchy brand for our congregation! There are even more exciting things on the horizon for the Marketing Team as they look ahead to the HBPres Centennial Celebration in 2016. So as you can see, being “regular” at HBPres is a thing of the past. God IS the constant but we are all very irregular. There is energy in the air and excitement being contained by many.

Thank you for continuing to support my leadership. I look forward to serving you in 2014-2015.
