Making a Difference

Harvey Browne Memorial Presbyterian Church Newsletter
May 2023

Maybe it's that it's finally springtime...or that Pentecost is this month... whatever it is, I am feeling excited about our church. In fact, I'm feeling downright evangelical about it. This church is such a beautiful expression of the Body of Christ here in Louisville. The people here are warm and welcoming, thoughtful and heartfelt; they don't shy from questions yet have a deep bedrock of faith guiding them. And above all, the people here are genuine. Nothing fake or pretentious. Just caring folks seeking deep relationship with God and one another. In my opinion, this world could use more places like Harvey Browne.

A 2012 study from Barna Research Group says that, across denominations and church traditions, six in ten young people will leave the church or take an extended break starting at age 15. That's 60% of the young people currently being raised in church, coming from strong families of faith. 60% will leave.

Why? They feel that church is isolationist, demonizing everything not officially "Christian." They also feel church exists in a bubble, never addressing real, pressing issues. A large number of young people are turned off by a perception that church is anti-science, and a majority feel that churches are segregated and lack diversity. And finally, while a quarter of young people have serious doubts they would like to thoughtfully discuss with someone, a third feel that church is not a safe place for asking questions or expressing doubt.

But what's more, these observations do not end with youth. More and more parents of young children choose involvement in secular organizations over religious ones due to similar fears. For people raised in more fundamentalist traditions, they often do not realize that there are, in fact, churches where wrestling with one's faith is ok. Where doubt is not demonized and questions are not unwelcome. The choice seems clear: either stay in church or leave altogether.

Which is why I am feeling so evangelical about our congregation. Again and again, people tell me that this place is like a balm for wounds inflicted by other churches and traditions; that they love the thought we put into our faith; that people here seem strong in what they believe and express it through service and mission; and that they wish we could get the word out so more folks could find their way here.

On May 14th, we will recognize our confirmands during our Sunday worship service. Over the past year, they have examined their faith and asked great questions. Above all, I hope they have received this message: that this church loves them, and that their curiosity is welcome here.

What would it be like if we got this word out to our broader community – if we were a bit more evangelical about our community of faith? We could always use more programs or strengthen certain areas of our church, but I think that we have a powerful gift to share with our community: caring folks seeking deep relationship with God and one another.

So, spread the word! You never know who might need this community to call home.

Christine

Callings and Transitions

Rev. Dr. Alonzo Johnson

On Sunday, May 7th, we will be ordaining and installing new elders and deacons into service. It is an exciting Sunday of recognizing both the gifts of these members as well as the call God has placed on their lives. We are grateful for their willingness to step into these new roles and their commitment to building up the body of Christ here at Harvey Browne.

New to Session this year will be Doug Grogg, who joins Becky Evans, Mike Hunter, Hayden Krausen, Lauren Krausen and Marcia Lewis, who each have renewed their terms. New to the Diaconate are Steve Buckner, Charlotte Craxton, Carol Christell, Rebecca Harrison, Justin Harrison, and Molly Pollock. Linda Brantley, Karen Overpeck and Martha Scott are joining the deacons, again, for a new term, and Nancy Pollock and Bob Smith are joining the Board of Deacons. For Trustees, Dee Pregliasco will begin a new term along with Lance Christell.

With these new calls come transitions in our leadership. Both Lynn Cole and Lynn Overstreet will be concluding their terms on the Board of Deacons. Pam Wood will conclude her time with the Trustees, and Kathy Darby, Kathy Gardner, Susan Gilfert, Bev Hampton, Edith Light, Barb Seewer and Kit Tossmann will rotate off as Deacons. Further, Pam Glaze has decided to step down as the chair of the Outreach Committee. Each of these have faithfully served in their roles for many years, giving of their time and talents to enrich the life of their church. We give thanks for their ministries and the gifts they have shared here at Harvey Browne!

On Pentecost Sunday, May 28th, our church will welcome Rev. Dr. Alonzo Johnson as guest preacher. A minister and educator with over 20 years working experience in congregational, urban ministry, youth ministry and academic settings, Alonzo Johnson serves as the denomination as the Coordinator for the Self Development of People program and Convener of the Educate a Child Transform the World Initiative.

Deacon's Corner

Installation of new Elders, Deacons and Trustees will be Sunday, May 7th during the 10:30 worship service. All new Deacons are expected to attend.

Board of Deacons members Lynn Cole and Lynn Overstreet will rotate off in May and Deacons; Kathy Darby, Kathy Gardner, Bev Hampton, Edith Light, Barb Seewer, Kit Tossmann, and Susan Gilfert will also rotate off in May. Thanks to all for your service and dedication to this community of faith. Please turn your notebooks in to the office when you rotate off.

Confirmation Class 2023

In the fall of 2022, confirmation began with a retreat led by Mark Hines, the author of new Confirmation curriculum called Commissioned to Change the World, Confirmation for the Matthew 25 Church. This curriculum focused less on membership and more on living out the Matthew 25 passage. Along the way, the confirmands met with their mentors to explore their faith through serving a meal to the Fern Creek Community at Open Table, searching for other ways to serve and love others, and to talk through any questions or doubts in their faith. This is a process that will continue throughout their life especially during their involvement in the youth group and their faith community. They will continue to seek ways that God is calling them to be faithful servants.

Confirmation class includes:

- Taylor Stewart, parents Art and Penny Stewart
- Donovan Hoert and Garrett Hoert, parents Devin and Jennifer Hoert
- Micah Drake, parents Paul and Heather Drake
- Lia Krausen, parents Robbie and Laura Krausen
- Worth DeWees, parents Rob and Renata DeWees

This group of young people will be confirmed on May 14 during worship.

Our final
Wednesday Night
Dinner of the school year will be May 24th.
There will be no
children's choir.

Thank you!

Congo Schools

Dear Harvey Browne,

Harvey Browne Memorial Presbyterian Church made it possible for the construction of the beautiful new, nine-room Tshiabantu Primary School and (the very first) Adalbert Kalambayi Secondary School in Mbuji Mayi, Democratic Republic of the Congo. Thank you.

Despite the Pandemic and the loss of our beloved East Kasai Education Coordinator, Adalbert Kalambayi, $139,000 was raised and the schools were completed and opened in September 2022. Praise God!!

Please accept the enclosed poster in gratitude for your church's generosity. Thank you for being a faithful Build Congo School's partner.

We hope that you will continue to support the work of Build Congo Schools as it helps transform the Presbyterian schools of the Congo. The education goals for this year are motorcycles, books/tools and teacher training.

To give to BCS, please inform our treasurer, George Collins, congogeorge2015@yahoo.com and Jeff Boyd, jeff.boyd@pcusa.org who is sending a gift. ## Music Ministry Thank You

Easter Thank You

Thank You Music Ministry Leaders and Participants

We have a dedicated group of people, of all ages, that gather weekly to prepare music for our worshipping community. Lent, Holy Week and Easter demand an even greater level of commitment. Thank you Children's Choirs, Chancel Bells, Chancel Choir and Instrumentalists for making our services during this time an opportunity for all to deepen their faith and find hope in our journey together.

It's not too late to find your place in one the many ensembles we have. And, if you want to make a short term commitment, then get ready for Summer Choir 2023. Mark your calendars for Sunday, June 4. Gonna be great. Come join us.

The sharing of a meal is important to our congregation and the sharing of bread on Easter morning was an expression of love from many of you who baked or bought bread for our celebration. Thank you so much!

The table and basket flowers are always so beautiful which is a gift from Peggy Campbell and Scott Blake.

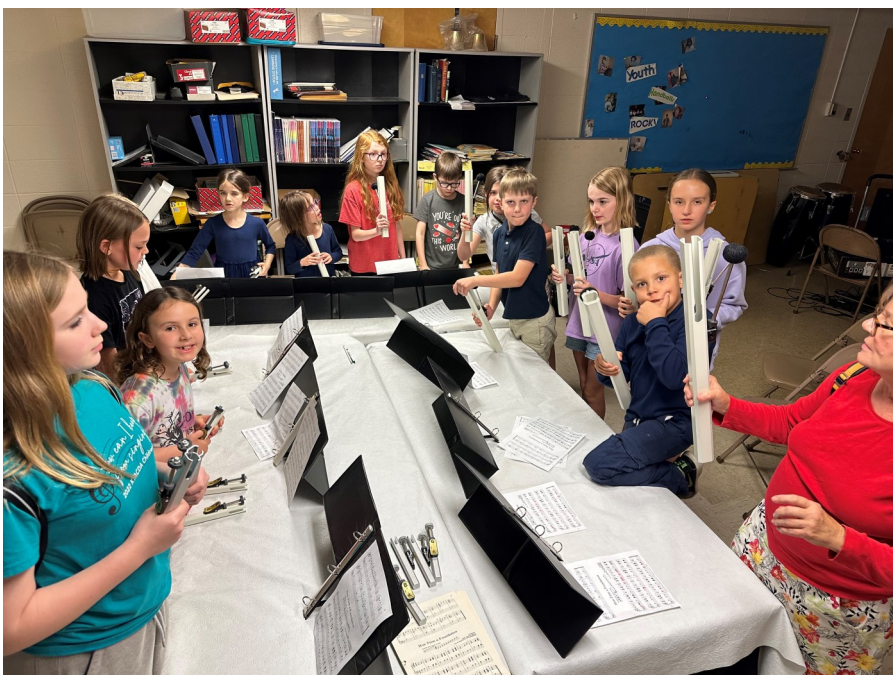

A special thanks to the PW's who helped set up and clean up, Tim Miller and Erin Brashear, Rev. Katherine Kubar for the children's activities, Ben Blake for the flower cross, Pastor Christine, the choir and our newly baptized for a God filled Easter worship.

Thank you to all who participated. We are blessed.
Christ is risen, indeed!

Children's Choir

This has been a great year for the children's choirs. We had record attendance in both choirs and sang and played in worship many times as well as presented a Christmas pageant. May 21 will be our final opportunity to lead in worship. We are preparing 3 anthems, one of which will be with the combined older and younger choirs, and a prelude on hand chimes combined with the Chancel Bells. It's a big finish for a great group of children who love being a part of the worship service! Thank you parents for your commitment and dedication to our children's music program and congregation for being so supportive of the children!

PW Furlough Home Dinner

Newsletter Change

YOU ARE INVITED....

ANNUAL MEETING AND DINNER

Tuesday, June 6, 2023

6 pm-8 pm

ELINE HALL AT HARVEY BROWNE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

311 Browns Lane, Louisville, KY 40207

We invite PWs in the Mid-Kentucky Presbytery to send one or more representatives to learn of the Furlough Home's mission, tradition, and exciting future. Enjoy dinner with us and hear Ellen Sherby, Acting Associate Director, Global Connections, Presbyterian World Mission Presbyterian Mission Agency, speak about Mission Today. Discover how your PW can become involved in this new phase in the life of the Furlough Home!

To RSVP: Email jewolph@gmail.com or fill out this form: <https://tinyurl.com/RSVPJune6-2023> (or <https://forms.gle/GVdNpcmQ1haGbuwD7>)

For planning purposes, we'll appreciate your response by May 25. Questions, contact Jean Wolph, 502-558-1931.

The original Furlough Home, a refurbished antebellum mansion in the Crescent Hill area of Louisville, was funded primarily through the 1953 Birthday Offering.

Presbyterian Women built a modern new facility in 1964 on the grounds of the Louisville Presbyterian Seminary, raising enough money that the debt was paid off in less than a year! With the sale of a portion of the Seminary property, this building was recently razed. A new building is planned—come learn more about it!

Beginning in June, we will send newsletters by regular mail to those who 1) are not able to view the newsletter online and 2) are not able to pick up a printed copy at the church. We are hoping that by not having to print so many newsletters, we will save money. We are encouraging everyone to view the newsletter online if they can. The newsletter is much prettier online, since it is in full color, and we can save money each month in paper and printing costs.

In the meantime, the church needs to know how you would like to receive your newsletter! If you would like a mailed copy, or if you plan to pick up a print version at the church, please contact the church office and let us know how. It is very important for us to know how many plan to pick-up the newsletter at church so that we can ensure that we are printing enough copies. We only need one response per family. (If you prefer to view the newsletter online, no need to reach out.)

Please let us know your preference by May 15. If you do not use email, please call Cheryl in the church office and tell her how you want to view the newsletter.

Harvey Browne Preschool

It's so hard to believe our school year is coming to an end! Our preschool and kindergarten children have grown in their confidence, their friendships, and their independence. It's wonderful to be part of their lives and we cherish each of them. The preschool staff would like to thank the Harvey Browne community for the prayers and love shown during some difficult times this year. We are so grateful to be in partnership with the church and value the relationship the preschool has as a mission of Harvey Browne Church.

Many thanks to Rev. Katherine Kubar for providing us with wonderful chapel times this year and for making our preschool families feel so welcome at churchwide events.

Our staff is looking forward to a much deserved summer break. We'll see you all in August rested and ready to embrace another school year!

Gratefully,
Amy Squires, Director
