

Making a Difference

Harvey Browne Memorial Presbyterian Church Newsletter
August 2023

How many of us, on turning the calendar page to August, find ourselves shocked to see that August 9th marks the first day of school. August 9th?! we think. Summer is over already? And so we shift our lives into a new gear, buying school supplies and filling out forms and generally filling our already over-extended lives with further feelings of frenzy.

Which, this month, has called to mind for me a quote from Thomas Merton. He writes:

There is a pervasive form of contemporary violence...and that is overwork. The rush and pressure of modern life are a form, perhaps the most common form, of its innate violence. To allow oneself to be carried away by a multitude of conflicting concerns, to surrender to too many means, to commit oneself to too many projects, to want to help everyone in everything, is to succumb to violence. The frenzy of our activism neutralizes our work for peace. It destroys our own inner capacity for peace. It destroys the fruitfulness of our own work, because it kills the root of inner wisdom which makes work fruitful. (Conjectures of a Guilty Bystander)

Merton, of course, was writing about the work of an activist who, in their desire to effect change, succumbs to constant turmoil, leaving the well they need to draw from dry due to overuse. Put simply, overcommitment stretches a person thin. Merton encourages mindful attention to rest in order to nurture and enrich the work done in one's life.

It is a message fundamental to who we are as people of faith. Remember the Sabbath and keep it holy, we are told. In Sabbath as Resistance: Saying No to the Culture of Now, Walter Brueggemann writes about just how counter-cultural this notion of Sabbath was in ancient times. Looking at the context of Egypt, where the Israelites' constant slave labor made their lives into commodities of Pharaoh, the commandment to rest is revolutionary. He writes, "Sabbath...is an act of trust in the subversive, exodus-causing God. [It] is a practical divestment so that neighborly engagement, rather than production and consumption, defines our lives."

As we turn the calendar page to August and feel that frenzy to "do" and "accomplish" bubbling inside of us, may we remember our call to sabbath – a call that is both revolutionary and necessary to sustaining us in the work before us. May we encourage one another in this counter-cultural work. And in finding that God-given rest, may we find our lives and our work deepened and enriched.

We are excited about the upcoming programming year, and this meeting will be an opportunity to hear about plans and expectations for the year. It is important for one grown-up of each child, tween, or youth to attend one of these meetings. The same material will be presented at both sessions. Children, tweens, and youth may also come during this time (they will meet in room 216). If you are unable to attend one of these meetings, please let Katherine (katherine@hbpres.net) know.

The HB – Habitat Presbyterian Coalition – 2023 Build

The Presbyterian Coalition is building again. This year we will be returning to Lake Louisville with the house located at 13516 Park Springs Lane. The Raise the Roof is scheduled for September 14, 15, and 16. We are partnering this year with Omar Ahmed and Taiseer Mohamedain. Omar and Taiseer are originally from Sudan and now live in Louisville with their two children. Prior to the build, there will be opportunities to prepare the walls which will frame this home. More information about the volunteer opportunities to come.

On Sunday, August 13, the special offering for Habitat will be collected. With the additional costs of building materials, the amount to sponsor a home has also increased. The Habitat Special Offering has always been well supported by Harvey Browne. Please join me in making the special offering this year for Habitat a part of building affordable homes in our community.

Brian Pollock, a longtime volunteer with Habitat, is always happy to spread the word about the mission and share the multitude of volunteer opportunities that can fit our talents and abilities. You may contact Brian at 298-5250 or bpmoving@yahoo.com.

Booktalk

Booktalk for Tuesday, August 29 at 11:30am will be Lessons in Chemistry by Bonnie Garmus. This very popular novel which takes place in the early 1960's will feel very familiar to women who were around then and will have them laughing and standing up and cheering for the brilliant scientist who is able to overcome the attitudes of her male bosses. Younger folks will also enjoy this delightful book. Bring a sandwich and a drink and join us in the living room or on Zoom. All are welcome whether you have read the book or not. If you buy your book at Carmichael's, mention Booktalk at Harvey Browne and receive a 20% discount.

Everyone is welcome whether you have read the book or not. If you buy your book at Carmichael's and mention Bookanalia or Booktalk at Harvey Browne, you will receive 20% off.

Wednesday Night Dinner Helpers Needed

It is exciting to watch how much our participation has grown this year with the return of our Wednesday Night dinner program. This past year we were averaging between 80-100 meals eaten each week. As we prepare for the new “school year” to begin for Wednesday Night dinners and programming, we need some more kitchen volunteers! We have a dedicated core group of volunteers, but need relief when members need to be out of town or have conflicts. The duties are simple, you don’t have to possess great cooking skills. We offer on the job training.

Some of the Wednesday Night relief tasks and the time period it takes place include:

3:30-4:00pm

- Setting the tables with plastic tablecloths, flowers in a vase or decoration, and salt and pepper shakers

4:30-6:00pm

- Helping someone with collecting money where people check in at the dinner

4:00-5:15pm

- Preparing the beverage dispensers with water, iced tea, and lemonade (tea needs to be brewed and the lemonade made from a mix) and ice, scooper, and plastic cups set out
- Helping someone prepare the salad bowl (mixed greens, tomatoes, peppers, onions, etc.) and setting up the salad bar toppings (croutons, cheese, various dressings)
- Setting out the items on the “children’s table” (ice to hold gallon milk jug, cups, loaf of bread, peanut butter and jelly, any special food item that week for children)
- Setting out the trays, paper plates, napkins and eating and serving utensils for dinner
- Helping plate the desserts (cutting brownies, pies, cakes, and placing cookies out for individual servings).

After 6:00pm

- Clean up afterwards in the dining area. Removing any trash and taking down tablecloths and decorations. Helping remove the chairs and tables from the gym floor.

We’d love to request assistance from all of our dinner guests, who are available, to commit to help at least one time this fall. It would work like ushering or serving communion, no long term weekly obligation, but helping us continue to provide a fun and enjoyable church meal before the evening programs.

Dinners start up in September and run through December. We usually take weeks off for holidays (Thanksgiving, Christmas, and school breaks.)

Interested individuals can send an email to Joni Burke at jonikburke@gmail.com or call 502-291-3442. Please share your name and contact information, what month/ week you could volunteer, and if you have a preference for the tasks or time period you could assist.

We also have a need for subs who could be called occasionally to pitch in when we are short-handed

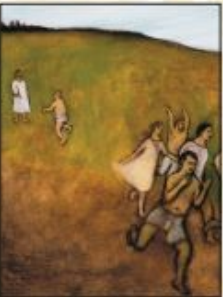

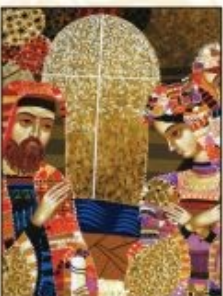

THANKS SO MUCH FOR YOUR SUPPORT OF OUR WEDNESDAY NIGHT DINNER PROGRAM!

PW Fall Kick-Off

It is almost time for Presbyterian Women (PW) to kick-off our fall plans. We encourage you to participate in our women's groups and activities. Consider participating in our Bible Study for the year 2023-24. The study this season is Sacred Encounters: The Power and Presence of Jesus Christ in Luke-Acts by Olive Mahabir. Within the pages of this study, we are invited to consider Jesus and Jesus' disciples as they shared the Good News through sacred encounters with everyday people. The Gospel According to Luke and the Acts of the Apostles is "one story in two parts," that demonstrates the unfolding of God's love and redemptive purpose in human history. Written by Luke, a physician and traveling companion of Paul, the message to the early Christian community (and to us) is radical, inclusive, and hope-filled. Further, this message invites the church to deeper, compassionate engagement with the world. "What are the potential implications for the church if we treat our interactions as sacred encounters that demonstrate the transformative love of Christ Jesus?"

Harvey Browne PW meet in Circles for small group discussion on the 2nd Tuesday of the month, September through May. Four groups meet at Harvey Browne in different locations at the church. Two groups meet at 10:30 AM, one at 11:30 AM, and one at 6:00 PM. If Tuesday is not suitable for you, we would love to help you set up a different time. Another option, if once a month is not feasible for you, choose a lesson that looks interesting and participate in any group, once or as often as you like. No commitment necessary. Each group will be studying the same lesson. Look in the September HB Newsletter for information on the PW Fall Kick-off Event. For more information or questions, contact the church office at 896-1791 or email Jane Doehnert at jbdonut@bellsouth.net

Books for Malawi

We will again be collecting books to send to Malawi as a part of our church's continuing support for the ministry and mission of the Holms family and their community. Bring books on Fall Kickoff Sunday, September 10th and place them in the box in the foyer. We will collect books until the box is full! Thank you for your generosity.

Mission Co-workers Jeff and Christi Boyd

Jeff and Christi Boyd are PCUSA Mission co-workers based in the Democratic Republic of Congo serving as Regional Liaison (Jeff) and Regional Facilitator for Women's and Children's Interests (Christi). In Jeff & Christi's Spring newsletter, they highlighted a shift taking place in the Congo. Instead of using institutions to house and care for vulnerable children, they are placing these children with families in the synods of East Kasai. So far, 192 Presbyterian congregations have been "vibrant havens" as foster families for abandoned or unaccompanied children. Child protection committees in Congo raise awareness about Child Rights and watch out for and advocate against any violations. Their goal is to work to reunite children placed in foster care with members of their family. Two years into this new program, 48 children had been placed into foster care and 66% of them had already been reunited with relatives. One of the most positive outcomes is the education the children receive. The reunification with their family enables them to be reintegrated into their community easier than if they had been in the institution.

We most recently mentioned Jeff & Christi in an article in the January HB newsletter. Further articles will appear in future HB newsletters to help everyone get to know them a little better and to help establish an ongoing "congregational connection" with them. You may also access a list of the newsletters published by the Boyds on a regular basis. Their newsletters cover a wide range of topics such as global partnerships, local news, helping vulnerable children, growing the church, and human trafficking.

Mission Opportunities Buckhorn Children & Family Services

Sign-ups are open for the Adult Mission Trip that is scheduled for October 8-14, 2023 and we'd love to have you join us.

The Buckhorn Children and Family Services in Buckhorn, KY offers a great opportunity for you to be involved in service. There will be a wide range of work since the flooding last year resulted in neglect on the maintenance of the 500-acre property while they focused on community recovery. Their largest need at present is assistance to catch up on the multiple chores that their lone maintenance person can't do. This could include a wide range of repairs and yard work. We'll be staying in residential housing on the campus with a minimal daily commute.

Sign-ups for the October trip will continue until 9/15/23 but your early response helps with planning. Please submit your name to the church office as soon as possible. Join us for all or part of the week.

We're looking forward to serving God and the people of Eastern Kentucky.

Summer Fun Tables of Eight Dinners

When our last newsletter promotion mentioned "summer fun" Tables of Eight, we didn't know that one of our dinner groups would be meeting on the Sunday of the bad weather night in June. After a delicious meal and conversation, this group had to adjourn when the power went out! Our thanks to new member, Judy Stubbs, who hosted that dinner. Kitty and Jim Boswell hosted another fun dinner "with power" the previous night. Thanks to all who participated in this round!

We hope you will plan to join us when we resume our potluck dinners in members' homes in the fall. We are always looking for more hosts.

We'd like to involve about six people on a Tables of Eight committee to help us in the promotions of the dinners. If you'd like to learn more or be involved, call or email Joni Burke at 502-291-3442 or jonikburke@gmail.com
