It goes without saying that we live in divisive times, and this reality is only amplified now as we enter the last month before the presidential election. What used to feel like different philosophies or good-hearted rivalries now feels different: us vs. them, in vs out, you vs me. I doubt any of us have escaped the implications of this shift, whether through tensions around the dinner table or how friends now relate to one another. It is real and it is hard. And I think we can all agree – it is not as it should be.

Many groups try to overcome this divide by rallying around some common purpose. Priya Parker, in her book, The Art of Gathering, writes about how important it is to have a defined purpose when groups gather. For some groups, the purpose might revolve around a leisure activity like bridge, pickleball, or books. For others, the purpose might be educational, like learning to bake, speak French or work on old cars. While we might have several groups like this at church, it is important to remember that, fundamentally, as a church, our purpose for gathering is “to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ” (Ephesians 4).

At church, our purpose is Christ. And in times of division, it is helpful to remember that what connects us isn't any activity or program. It is Christ.

Over the course of these next couple of months, we are going to take some time to step back from the rhetoric around us and explore what it means to be connected in Christ. What does it mean to be connected in Christ with people with whom we vehemently disagree? What does it mean to be connected in Christ with people who have lost the ability to talk to one another, or who perhaps believe they have nothing in common?

Scripture will guide us and so, too, will our Book of Confessions, which is a collection of documents written from some of history's most divisive moments, spanning the times of the early church to the modern era. What can we learn from the breadth of this Christian movement that can guide us now? How can we rise above and remember what binds us, so that we can then focus in and live our lives more meaningfully and with more purpose?

Being connected in Christ isn't easy, friends. It is way more convenient to cut people out, picking and choosing those who align with what we think and like. But like it or not, acknowledge it or not, we are connected in Christ.

So together, let us equip ourselves for the work of ministry, so that we can build up the body of Christ in our church, in our families, in our communities, and in our world.

May it be so!
Christine

Wednesday Night Dinner Survey Results

We want to thank everyone who participated in the survey this past May regarding our Wednesday Night Dinners. You provided great suggestions! Dinner participants indicated their enthusiasm for the food catered by Kingsley's Meats and Catering Company. All but one survey indicated that they thought the price paid was a good value for the entrees, sides, bread, green salad and toppings, desserts, and beverages. All but one survey indicated that most people check the menu each week in the monthly newsletter, Highlights, or Good News to Go.

Some of the favorite menu entrees mentioned were Breakfast for Dinner, Baked Potato Bar, Taco Bar, Cookout, Pasta Bar, BBQ Pork Sandwiches, and Bill's Chicken. Favorite desserts were pie, cake, ice cream, and brownies. Top salad dressings were Ranch, Honey Mustard, and Balsamic Vinaigrette. Top salad toppings were grated cheese, tomatoes, croutons, cucumbers, and carrots.

Some suggestions for our committee included: making sure there is adequate food for all in attendance, the themes around holidays, more plain vegetables, continuing the vegetarian entrees, less carbs, more protein, less soup and chili, and more low key toys in gym in rainy days to add to the playset.

Thanks to all who took the time to provide great feedback after our first year using our new caterer. As one person said, "It's always good and fun at Wednesday Night Dinners!"

Presbyterian Women

Eline Hall was the setting for our PW Kickoff Luncheon last month. Over 60 women gathered around tables in the room beautifully transformed by seasonal foliage from Peggy Campbell's garden, art, song, and conversation. Our speaker, Rebecca Barnes, helped us focus our attention on the complex and challenging topic of Caring for One Another and God's Creation. We left encouraged by the knowledge that we can make a difference and look forward to learning more in the coming months.

Every participant was given a bookmark designed by Scott Blake and created and crafted by Scott and Portia Brittain. Scott was inspired by the artwork in our Bible Study and used her skills with paints and sewing machine to create a tree inspired bookmark. Portia used her gifts of patience, persistence, and gluing to add the small embellishments and detail.

To all who attended, we are grateful for your participation. For all who helped create the beautiful space and hospitality, we give thanks.

If you would like to learn more about the small gatherings of Presbyterian Women at Harvey Browne and explore this topic further, you may contact Jane Doehnert or Linda Garrett. Brochures with PW information can be found in the foyer at the Information Station or on the Harvey Browne Website.

Sharing Our Journey - Practice Generosity

On October 6, Sharing Our Journey Sunday School class begins 4 sessions that focus on generosity. Generosity is often understood as an act of kindness that involves giving out of one's abundance to others in need. Biblical teachings describe the practice as something a little different. Generosity is simply, and profoundly, love in action. We practice generosity in all the ways we love God and love our neighbors. It is a practice rooted in justice and concerned with all the world's needs. One may not have a penny to give but can still be plenty generous. Generosity is an expectation not a simple kindness to be observed. Generosity is caring for our neighbors' mind, body, spirit, and life in the community. Please join our small group discussions in the Living Room. October 6 – Share Resources, October 13 – Share Wisdom, October 20 – Share Justice, October 27 – Share Power. For more information, you may contact Jane Doehnert. jbdonut@bellsouth.net.

FRIENDS Class

The FRIENDS class is a discussion-based class for folks who grew up while the show "FRIENDS" was in the height of its popularity. This class studies various topics throughout the church year while also making space for sharing joys, challenges, and questions as they arise in peoples' lives. Class meets in the Session room.

Fall Festival Volunteers Needed

Bring a smile to a child's face at the Harvey Browne Fall Festival! Seeking volunteers to decorate the trunk of your car and hand out candy during the trunk-or-treat portion of the evening. This year, we have a limited number of trunk decoration kits, so all you need to provide is your car! We also need volunteers to arrive early to help set up and some to stay late to help with clean up. Let Katherine (katherine@hbpres.net) know if you are willing to be a volunteer. Fall festival will be held from 5:30pm to 8pm on October 25.

Children, Lift, Youth, and Families

Confirmation Class 2025

Our 2025 confirmation class is for youth in 7th grade and above who are ready to join the church. The class will meet on certain Wednesday evenings in the fall and spring from 6:30-7:15 and will be confirmed in spring 2025. The fall class dates will be: October 9, November 20, and December 11.

HBYouth

Our HBYouth program offers weekly gatherings for our middle and high school youth. They meet Sunday nights from 3:30—5:30. Lock-ins, outings, conferences, and mission trips happen throughout the year. This month, they meet on October 6, 13, 20 and 27.

Fall Festival

Dress in your best Halloween costume and come out for bounce houses, food truck, lawn games, and trunk-or-treat at the Harvey Browne Fall Festival Friday, October 25th from 5:30-8:00pm! The costume parade and trunk-or-treating will begin at 6:30, but the food truck, bounce houses, and games will be set up and ready at 5:30.

LIFT

This fall, 4th-5th Lift curriculum will be about Presbyterianism. Our meetings include time for play, study, and snack. We meet from 4:00-5:30pm. Drop off and pick up at the church office entrance. Fall Lift meetings are October 13, October 20, November 17, December 8.

Parents Day Out and Nursery

PDO is off and running. We welcomed back familiar faces and welcomed new ones. PDO operates Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 9 to 12. It serves children 9 months through young two-year-olds. This year we have 40 beautiful children and 8 wonderful staff members who fill the space here at Harvey Browne with love, laughter, and a few short-lived tears. This summer we completed our classroom renovations. Room 109 received new flooring. Harvey's Helpers graciously painted the classroom in a pretty green. The classroom looks very inviting for PDO children as well as our children of the church who use the room on Wednesday nights.

Halloween Costume Drive

Harvey Browne is collecting gently used, non-scary Halloween costume for the children at Family Scholar House! Please put your costumes in a plastic bag, labeling it with the size and name of costume, and then bring your costume donation(s) to the church office by Wednesday, October 9th. The costume drive is a joint mission effort of Beargrass Christian, St. Matthews United Methodist, and Harvey Browne Presbyterian.

The nursery is in full swing this season. The nursery is available from 9:15 to 11:45 on Sunday mornings for children up to three years old. Tess, Katie, and Edyn are our nursery caregivers. During the Sunday School hour, four-year-olds can choose to go to Sunday school with Ms. Katie or stay in nursery. During worship children Pre-K through Kindergarten are welcome to leave worship after Time with Young Disciples to enjoy activities with their peers in room 117. Children who leave the service will return to service during the last hymn. In the nursery area, there is a clipboard with children listed, contact information and known allergies. Parents, please check the information to make sure it is correct. Also, please complete children information forms at <https://tinyurl.com/2024HBforms>.

On Wednesday nights, childcare is available from 6 to 7 in room 109 for children four and under. If you are needing childcare beyond our times on Sunday and Wednesday nights, please contact Julie Rousseau at jrousseau@hbpres.net or 896-1791ext. 119 to set up your needs.

Bookanalia

We had a great turnout at our Bookanalia kick-off session for the year. Judy Laning led our discussion of The Long Way Home (#10 in the Inspector Gamache series) by Louise Penny, and shared a cake to celebrate a decade of spending time in Three Pines!

Bookanalia will meet at 6pm, in the Session Room or on Zoom, following the Weds Night Dinner on October 16, 2024 to discuss The Feast by Margaret Kennedy. Marisue Coy will lead our conversation about this recently rereleased allegorical post-war mystery.

Christmas Cabbage Patch Families

Christmas for Cabbage Patch Families

For more than 30 years, Harvey Browne Presbyterian has partnered with The Cabbage Patch Settlement House to provide clothing, gifts, and groceries at Christmas to families who are struggling to pay their bills.

Although it's only October, we are already working on this beloved Christmas mission project.

Cabbage Patch, located on South Sixth Street, offers programs and services to low-income families, primarily school-age children and youth between the ages of 8 and 16. Many of these families live within a two-mile radius of the agency. The mission of the non-profit agency, established in 1910, is "to provide life-changing academic, recreational, and mentoring opportunities through Christ-centered values."

During the worship service on October 27, the special offering will be accepted for this mission project, allowing HBPres to provide clothing, necessities, groceries, and gifts which members of our congregation will deliver to Cabbage Patch families' homes on December 15.

Everyone can be involved! Your prayers, donations, and help are needed.

Please give generously to the Special Offering for Cabbage Patch on October 27.

Other assistance you may be able to provide:

Contact Heather Drake to volunteer to shop with a Cabbage Patch family member on Saturday morning, November 9. Shopping will be done at the Jeffersonton Meijer store located at 4500 Hurstbourne Lane. To learn more or to volunteer, reach out to Heather (text or call 502-445-1080) today.

Volunteer to wrap gifts on Wednesday evenings or Sundays starting in November.

Consider buying a personal gift for a child served by Cabbage Patch. Tags with the children's requests will be displayed on a gift tree in November.

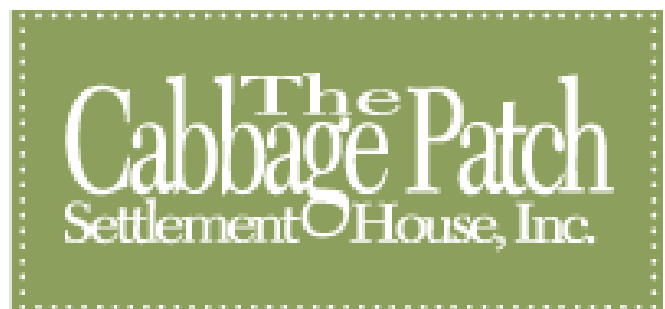

See the November newsletter about donating items for Cabbage Patch families to the Grocery Cart. Some of the requested products, which cannot be purchased with food stamps, include cleaning supplies, bars of soap, laundry detergent, feminine hygiene products, and toilet paper.

Check the November newsletter and Good News to Go to find out about the volunteer team needed to sort the wrapped gifts for delivery to the families

Contact Bob Smith (502-523-6466 or at smith103@bellsouth.net) to volunteer to deliver the gifts directly to the families (after our worship service on December 15). You and your family can be involved in this joyous excursion.

Want to learn more? Please contact Linda Garrett at 502-558-7813.

With your help, we can continue sharing the good news about Christ's love with Cabbage Patch families.
