Have you ever had an experience of transcendence? Of feeling somehow transported from the reality of your current space and time?

Maybe you've felt it walking through the woods or digging in your garden. Perhaps you've had a taste of it while seeing a play, listening to an incredible piece of music, or eating an unbelievable meal. For just a moment, no matter the stress or worry around you, you feel transported.

I wonder if the idea of Christmas can feel that way for a lot of us. At Christmastime, we draw upon our nostalgia-soaked memories which sometimes paint the season as other-worldly. Memory has a fantastic ability to blur the rougher edges of Christmas – the stress of getting food ready and presents wrapped, family conflicts and conflicting traditions. Through those candlelight colored lenses, the idea of Christmas feels transcendent – separate, somehow, from the stress and the turmoil. Maybe that's why so many of us want to rush through the here and now of Advent. Whether secular or religious, Christmas feels blessedly transcendent. And we love it for that.

But the irony of giving Christmas such an otherworldly glow is that, at its heart, Christmas is about God's presence here and now. The incarnation, where God took on flesh to dwell among us, does not invite us to detach from this world. Rather, it invites us to marvel in the reality that God chose solidarity with us right here - in the stress, the heartache, and the fear. More than any other day, Christmas grounds us, reminding us that even in the mess of the world, God is present.

This year for the season of Advent, we will be using a worship series titled What Child IS This? Using the words that William Chatterton Dix penned in 1865, we will dig into what it means to trust in a Christ born into a corrupt world and yet powerfully offering a witness of hope, peace, joy and love.

I look forward to thinking with you about how Christmas invites us to be present right where Jesus is present, among the hungry, the vulnerable, and the oppressed. Together let's root ourselves this Advent, not ignoring the pain of the world but engaging it – right where God incarnate took on flesh and came alongside us.

- Christine

Join us December 18 from 6:00—8:00 for an evening of food, fellowship, and experiential worship as together we acknowledge the weariness we carry in the midst of an often overwhelming season. Light refreshments will be offered in the foyer before a brief, reflective worship service. Following the service, participants will be invited to engage in a variety of spiritual practices and continued fellowship. Together, let us help find hope in the dark!

Christmas Pageant

The nativity story as told by the children of our congregation will be at 4:00pm on Sunday, December 14 in the Sanctuary with a cookie and hot chocolate reception to follow. Plus, a little holiday cheer from the youth group! All are welcome to attend!

Christmas Eve Worship

Join us for a Christmas Eve Worship Service at Harvey Browne Memorial Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, December 24, at 6:00 PM in the sanctuary. Come celebrate the joy and hope of Christ's birth with us in a beautiful and meaningful service. All are welcome!

Outreach and Mission

December Grocery Cart

The Grocery Cart for December is for Cabbage Patch. The supplies they are asking for this year are laundry detergent, bar soap (dove or dove equivalent), cleaning supplies, canned meats (chicken, tuna), spaghetti, spaghetti sauce, snacks (granola bars, unpopped popcorn, etc.), soup, feminine hygiene supplies (pads, tampons, unscented), toilet paper, toothpaste and toothbrushes, baked beans, pork and beans, beef stew.

Special Offering

The Christmas Joy Offering supports church workers and their families in the PC(USA) who need critical financial assistance. Your congregation has the opportunity to make an impact. You can be the difference between financial hardship and a blessed breath of relief.

In addition, the Christmas Joy Offering is committed to helping promote educational opportunities and leadership development, in Presbyterian-related schools and colleges equipping communities of color. Your congregation can enable these institutions to provide students with a transformative education.

On Sunday, December 21, give the gift of education and the gift of relief of financial burden this giving season by supporting the Christmas Joy Offering.

Cabbage Patch Christmas on the Move!

Shopping is completed thanks to 10 wonderful HB shoppers and Heather Drake. We sent the mom's home very happy in anticipation of smiling children and youth in a few weeks. We are now wrapping all these gifts in room 209 mostly on Wednesdays after dinner through December 10. Come join in the merriment and joyful camaraderie. On Sundays a gift tree is in the foyer at the welcome area. Choose a child's name with gift ideas to buy for them. Wrap it and bring it back to church by December 7. Contact Anne Hughes. On Friday evening Dec.12 we will organize the gifts from 209, grocery cart items, PDO contribution and food boxes in Emory (gym). Contact Brian Pollock (502)298-5250. Then our last event is the delivery of the gifts to the family's homes or to the Cabbage Patch. We need 10 vehicles on December 14. Please contact Bob Smith (502)523-6466 to volunteer.

Harvey Browne is a very caring and compassionate community sharing time and money providing families with Christ filled love during the season of his birth. Thank you for the generous special offerings.

Sunday School

HBUniversity

These are trying times in our national life and those of us in mainline churches are feeling sidelined. Do the things that Presbyterians stand for, like racial equality, welcoming strangers and immigrants, and care of the earth, matter any more? How can we recover our collective voices for the public good? We might expect the Bible has something to say to our current dilemma, and indeed it does, and the word of God still speaks clearly to our day. On five Sunday mornings, Jan. 11-Feb. 8, HBUniversity will delve into Jeff Cover's book, Going Public. The author, a retired Presbyterian pastor, will be our teacher for a sampler of chapters from the book. Each chapter helps us recover a story from someone in the Bible called out of private life into the public life of the day—a Hebrew midwife, a beauty queen, a shepherd, a learned rabbi, an unlettered fisherman. Jeff invites you to come and be part of the lively discussion. While you're not required to purchase the book, reading it would greatly enhance your experience. Order a copy wherever you buy books, or place an order through the church office and Jeff will bring the ordered books to class when it starts. The deadline to order a book through the church office is December 15.

4th-5th LIFT

Lift will meet on Sunday December 7 at 4:00pm to wrap up our fall series on the sacraments!

Children & Youth Classes

New curriculum: Our children will begin with a new curriculum from Dwell. Each session they will explore a Bible story and complete an activity together.

- 0-3 in Nursery
- 4's- K & 1st in Room 212 with Katie Williams
- Grades 2-3 in Room 216 with Beverly Hampton
- Grades 4-5 in Room 206 with Alison Lockhart
- Youth Class (6th—12th grade) Meet in the Loft.

*Please initial the clipboards and ensure we have your contact information when you drop your child off at Sunday School*

Sunday Breakfast is offered each week in Eline Hall from 9:00—9:30.

HBYouth Christmas Party

We will enjoy pizza, treats, and fellowship together at our Christmas party on December 13 from 6-8:30. Church member Sally Craxton has very kindly offered to host us! Her address is 1802 Corona Ct, Louisville, KY 40222. Youth should bring a wrapped gift (no more than $20) for our white elephant gift exchange. Funny gifts are amazing but we try to avoid anyone getting a gift that makes them sad. Please RSVP for this event by December 10 so we have enough treats!

FRIENDS Christmas Party

The FRIENDS will be gathering on Friday, December 19 at 5:30pm at the Buckners' for their annual Christmas gathering. Bring a side to share and a wrapped favorite holiday book for the gift exchange! Children are welcome. RSVP to Megan Durham or Molly Pollock by December 15. (FRIENDS is primarily made up of folks of the FRIENDS tv show generation - Gen X, Millennials)

From We to Me

From We to Me, a support group for widows, will continue on the third Thursday of each month from 1:30 to 3:00 in the Living Room. All widows are welcome to join us for fellowship, sharing and support. The next meeting is December 18th.

What is Prime Time?

Prime Time started this spring and is a ministry at Harvey Browne for those in the "third-thirty" of life (sometimes referred to as senior adults). Prime Time hosts periodic events and programs, as well as one group which meet regularly - Deeper Connections. Stay up to date with all that is going on with Prime Time by subscribing to the Prime Time email. If you'd like to subscribe to this email or more information about Prime Time, call the church office.

We are going back to Masonic Homes on December 9 at 1:00pm to watch a Christmas movie together! RSVP for this by calling the church office by Wednesday, December 3. When you RSVP, indicate whether you would like to carpool to Masonic Homes and if you would be interested in going out to lunch before the movie.

Merry Christmas from Harvey Browne Preschool

Christmastime at Harvey Browne Preschool is a time of joy! The children share their anticipation and excitement for the season throughout the day - their joy is palpable.

This Christmas, Harvey Browne Preschool is proud to partner for the 2nd year with Harvey Browne Presbyterian Church and support the Cabbage Patch Christmas Baskets. Our families were asked to contribute Walmart and Target gift cards to the Cabbage Patch baskets. We tied these donations to our chapel time with Reverend Katharine, our classroom themes focused on sharing God's love and the joy of giving. In October, our families donated over 330 needed food items to the St. MAM's Food Pantry. Sharing is a core value at the preschool; our children and families continue to support this community in wonderful, real-world ways.

We will welcome Stage One Storytellers to the preschool in December for an immersive storytelling experience re-telling beloved winter books through drama and engagement. We love bringing enrichment opportunities to our children and this should be a fun one! Per tradition, the Kindergarten Kangaroo class will present "The First Christmas" to their families. It's a wonderful tradition at Harvey Browne Preschool.

Registration for the 26/27 school year has begun! Priority registration will end on December 18th for church members and current families. Our registration packet is available at the Welcome Center in the foyer and on our website. Please contact the preschool office if you would like to schedule a tour or have any questions.
(502) 895-2577 www.harveybrownepreschool.org.

Christmas is always a time for celebration and the children of Harvey Browne Preschool give us a daily reminder of the magic that the season holds. I wish each of you a Christmas filled with joy and wonder.

Amy Squires, Director
