Lenten Activities

Meeting Jesus on the Road - We are delighted to celebrate the release of Meeting Jesus on the Road, a new Lenten study co-authored by our own Christine Coy Fohr, with Cynthia Campbell, plus a forward written by Ben Blake. This thoughtfully written book invites readers to walk with Jesus through the Gospel stories that shape his ministry, and our discipleship, calling us to follow, listen, question, and grow. Copies of the book are available in the church office or at the Coffee Cove for $10. All adult Sunday School classes will be studying Meeting Jesus on the Road during Lent. Get a copy and congratulate Christine, Ben, and Cynthia on this wonderful addition to our bookshelves and lives of faith!

Lenten Pottery Workshop - Rev. Dr. Ann Laird Jones, recently retired Arts Ministry Director at Montreat Conference Center, will lead a Lenten pottery workshop exploring faith through art and simple hand-building. Ann shares deep connections with Harvey Browne Presbyterian Church and gratitude for the congregation's longstanding support of Sally Jones Pottery at Montreat. All skill levels are welcome. The workshop will be held during Wednesday night programming March 4 at 6:00pm in Eline Hall.

Lenten Activities

Lenten Wednesday Night Bible Study - Please join Sue Garrett as she leads a four-week Lenten study of the New Testament Letter of James. James is a short and powerful, yet underrated word from an early Jesus-follower. (Martin Luther made a mistake when he called it "an epistle of straw!") Reading James together we will find new ways to lean into Jesus' command to love God and love our neighbor as ourselves. Dates for the study are February 25 and March 11, 18, and 25.

Lenten Organ Recital, Sunday, March 1 at 3:00pm - Please join us for a Lenten organ recital with Chris Harbeson-Borgelt featuring music for the season of reflection and preparation. This recital is offered as a benefit for Kentucky Refugee Ministries, supporting their work with refugees and displaced individuals in our community. Donations will be collected in-person or can be made online at kyrm.org. A light reception will follow the recital in the foyer. We hope to see you there!
