Bread for the World Offering of Letters- Again, we invite you to write your elected officials as part of Bread for the World's Offering of Letters. This year's focus is on child nutrition. You can pick up a fact sheet in the foyer Sunday morning to help write your letter. It only needs to be 3-4 lines, and children could simply draw a picture. Written letters are 90% more effective than text, email, or calls. Please do not send them yourself as we want to include them as our "offering" in worship! Simply bring your letter to the "Bread" table in the foyer by May 18 and we will mail them off. Our goal is 150 letters. Thanks for being Christ's messengers for justice and hope!

Wednesday Night Dinner Menu- Wednesday Night Dinner on May 14 will Bill's Italian Night served with a green salad and assorted desserts.

Bookanalia- Bookanalia's final meeting of the season will be Wednesday May 21. They will discuss the timely Solito: A Memoir by Javier Zamora. We will meet in the Session Room following Wednesday night dinner, or a Zoom link is also available. Poet Javier Zamora tells the story of his journey as a 9-year-old boy from El Salvador to the United States. The trip was supposed to take two weeks but lasted for two months. Rob Fohr will facilitate our conversation.

Booktalk- Will meet for Tuesday, May 27 at 11:30 on Zoom and in the Living Room to discuss Be Ready When the Luck Happens by Ina Garten. Ina shares her life story and the secret of her success, which is advice she received to do what you love because if you love it, you'll be really good at it. Grab a sandwich and a drink and join us as we discuss this enjoyable life journey. All are welcome whether you have read the book or not. If you buy the book at Camichael's, mention Booktalk at Harvey Browne and receive 20% off.

Wednesday Night Dinner Surveys- If you have ever dined with us on Wednesday Night in Emory Hall, you probably know which meals are your favorites and what you prefer on the salad bar or dessert cart. While we can't promise that every week we can serve breakfast for dinner or pizza or taco bar, we'd love to see your preferences so we can make good choices on our menus. Paper surveys can be completed at the weekly dinners or contact the church office for an online link. Thanks for completing the surveys by May 31.

An invitation from Rev. Dr. Patricia K. Tull- Patricia has invited the HB congregation to visit her property on May 31 in Henryville, IN. Their home and grounds have a carbon-neutral footprint so come and see how it's done. We will be carpooling from HB at 10am and return around 1:30pm. We will picnic on the grounds so please bring a blanket or lawn chair, a dish to share and a water bottle and/or drink for your lunch. If raining, we have other accommodations. Get ready for a fun road trip! If you have questions, please contact Mark Barnes. From your Hunger-Justice-Earth Care Ministry Team.
